

FACP Survey Report

Survey: Thursday Survey 11-21-13

Total Responses: 51

How does your Chamber bill member renewals?

Answer	Votes	%	Graph
Annually, in the members' anniversary months	47	92.1%
Annually, with all members being billed at the same time	4	7.8%

Has the current billing method always been the method used by your Chamber?

Answer	Votes	%	Graph
Yes, we have always used this method	43	84.3%
No, we used to bill the alternative method, but switched	8	15.6%

If your Chamber does annual billing (with all members being billed at the same time), please select the choice that best describes the timing of the annual billing.

Answer	Votes	%	Graph
The first month of our fiscal year	1	1.9%
The last month of our fiscal year	1	1.9%
Other	4	7.8%
No Response	45	88.2%

If your Chamber does annual billing (with all members being billed at one time), how is the billing handled for those members that join throughout the year?

Answer	Votes	%	Graph
We prorate their new dues for the months remaining until the annual billing	2	3.9%
They pay the full amount when they join and we prorate their renewal dues for their first renewal	3	5.8%
Other	1	1.9%
No Response	45	88.2%

If you answered "other" to the question above, please explain.

Quick View Details

If your Chamber formerly billed on anniversary months, but switched to annual billing, what advice would you offer to ensure a smooth transition?

Quick View Details